FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on December 4, 2026, on its own motion, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, (subsequently renumbered to Section 112.3145(8)(f)) which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant served on the Village Council of Lazy Lake, Florida a position requiring the filing of a 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. In 2022, the designated due date for submitting a 2021 CE Form 1 was July 1, 2022, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2022.

2. No later than June 1, 2022, the Broward County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a 2021 CE Form 1.

3. No later than August 1, 2022, the Broward County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a notice of delinquency by certified mail. The Broward County Supervisor of Elections did not provide the Commission with a certified mailing receipt.

4. On September 13, 2022, the Commission on Ethics mailed Appellant a courtesy notice of fines accruing. This notice was sent to Appellant at 2150 Lazy Lane, Lazy Lake, Fl 33305.

5. On September 14, 2022, Appellant submitted his 2021 CE Form 1.

6. On April 5, 2024, the Commission mailed Appellant a Notice of Assessed Fine. The notice was sent by certified mail to Appellant at the 2150 Lazy Lane address. It indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine was $325 ($25 per day for 13 days late) and provided that the Commission must receive an appeal of the fine by May 6, 2024.

7. On May 3, 2024, the Commission received an email from Appellant detailing the reasons for his appeal. On May 9, 2024, the Commission also received Appellant's appeal form via mail regarding his appeal of his automatic fine for Form Year 2021. On his appeal form and in his email, Appellant stated that he was hospitalized due to a car accident. Appellant noted that he was unable to meet the filing deadline due to his treatment and recovery, and that he did not have the resources he needed to complete the Form.

Conclusions of Law

8. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

9. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

10. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, (subsequently renumbered to Section 112.3145(8)(f)(2)) states:

> Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the > designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

11. Pursuant to Rule 34-8.215(4), F.A.C., "unusual circumstances" means uncommon, rare or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements. Circumstances which allow for time in which to take those steps necessary to assure compliance with the filing requirements shall be deemed not to constitute unusual circumstances.

12. Here, regarding the timeliness of the appeal, although the Commission did not receive Appellant's appeal form via mail until May 9, Appellant also emailed the reasons for his appeal on May 3, prior to the May 6 deadline. There is no statutory requirement that financial disclosure appeals must be submitted utilizing the Commission's appeal form, emailed appeals (or appeals sent via mail without the appeal form) are acceptable. Regarding the merits of the appeal, Appellant explained that he was hospitalized due to a car accident, and was going through treatment and recovery during the relevant time period. Considering Appellant's claims, and that there is no evidence showing otherwise, there are "unusual circumstances" here that prevented the timely filing of the financial disclosure form that justify waiving the $325 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby finds that unusual circumstances for failure to timely file have been demonstrated. We therefore waive the assessed fine of $325.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on December 4, 2026.

I was hospitalized due to a car accident and in a period of recovery did not have the resources to complete this FORM 1. And this was unfortunately overlooked by me, our mayor and our administrator who normally tracks council member's timely completion of required forms. In addition, I felt inadequately trained about council member's responsibilities and I take personal responsibility for my lack of awareness. I stepped into this position to fill an early resignation of. councilmember, Daniel Copher, and as was sincerely unprepared for the scope of the position. Thank You.

I was hospitalized Broward General Medical Center due to a car accident, therefore due to treatment and recovery was unable to meet deadline For Filing Form 1. This was unfortunately overlooked by me, the mayor and our Village administrator. I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience. Thank You for your consideration.

OPTIONAL REQUEST FOR HEARING

[ ] In addition to this written appeal, I specifically request to appear before the Commission in a hearing pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f)3 or Section 112.3145(8)(g)3, Florida Statutes. Commission meetings occur in Tallahassee.

Subject: Financial Disclosure—Certification of Late Filers

Dear Supervisor of Elections:

The final stage of the annual financial disclosure process is your certification to the Commission on Ethics of those persons who have not timely filed a Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. Section 112.3145(8)(d), Florida Statutes, provides:

> No later than November 15 of each year, the supervisor of elections in each county shall certify to the commission a list of the names and addresses of, and the offices or positions held by, all persons who have failed to timely file the required statements of financial interests. The certification must include the earliest of the dates described in subparagraph (g)1. The certification shall be on a form prescribed by the commission and shall indicate whether the supervisor of elections has provided the disclosure forms and notice as required by this subsection to all persons named on the delinquency list.

We have prescribed the attached form for your use in making this certification by November 15, 2022 or you may print the certification form from the portal. Please note the Supervisor of Elections Portal will be closed on November 23, 2022.

Given that the $25 daily fines are in effect (maximum of $1,500.00), we need to know exactly when each person's form was filed so our office can calculate the fine that will be due (note the instructions below on how to record a filing date for forms received after the grace period). In addition, in order to make this process as accurate as possible, please include the PID number that is associated with each late filer.

PLEASE NOTE:

1. The grace period for this year is in effect until Thursday, September 1, 2022.
2. The date a form is filed is the earliest of the following:
   a) When the statement is actually received by your office;
   b) When the statement is postmarked;
   c) When the certificate of mailing is dated (if a certificate of mailing obtained from and dated by the US Postal Service at the time of the mailing is supplied); or
   d) When the receipt from an established courier company is dated (if the form was delivered by an established courier company). [See sec. 112.3145(8)(g)1, Fla. Stat.]
3. The "cut-off" date is October 31, 2022 (this is the 60th day after Sep 1st, and the maximum fine accrues on the 60th day).
4. Keep all envelopes and other paperwork showing postmark, etc., along with the Form 1.

EXAMPLES:

- Any form mailed to your office that is postmarked on or before September 1st would be timely. Therefore, if your office received a Form 1 on September 6th, but it was postmarked on Thursday, September 1st, that filing would be timely and that filer should not be reported as late, as the "date filed" would be September 1st. Enter the postmarked date as the receipt date.
- Any form mailed to your office that is postmarked after September 1st would be late, and the filing date should be reported as the postmark date. For example, if you receive a form on September 29th that was postmarked on September 26th, you should report the filer as filing late, on September 26th.
- Any form that is hand-delivered to your office would be considered filed on the date received by your office (unless delivered by a courier company, in which case the filing date would be the date the courier company received it). Therefore, if a filer drops off his form on September 27th, the "date filed" would be September 27th. Or, if emailed, record for the date email was sent.
- Any filer who has not filed (received, postmarked, etc.) a Form 1 by October 31 should be reported as "Not filed by October 31".

You can use whatever format works best for you, as long as we receive the name, address, position, Filer ID #, and date filed for each person who failed to file by September 1st. For each person on the list of late filers, our office will calculate the amount of the fine, send a notice of the fine due and the appropriate appeal rights, and handle all fines and appeals.

Additionally, in order to aid our staff to more efficiently handle appeals, please provide our office with copies of the certified mail receipts for all late and non-filers. For late filers, provide a copy of the form and envelope with postmarked date. If received by email, provide a copy of email with the form copy. You may also provide our office with any other information you feel is useful to assist us in handling appeals.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Your continued assistance is greatly appreciated.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2022. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2022. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2021 CE Form 1 was filed September 14, 2022 with the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County, you are fined the amount of $325.00 ($25.00 per day for 13 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before May 6, 2024. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2022, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
   a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
   b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
   c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;

d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2021: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2021; or

f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if deliquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.

6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of you salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
