Financial Disclosure Appeal No. FD 18-058
Final Order No.

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on July 26, 2019, on the timely appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant serves as the Principal at Champions at Union Park Elementary, an Orange County Public School, a position requiring the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2017. In 2018, the designated due date for submitting a 2017 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 2, 2018, with a grace period ending on September 4, 2018.

2. No later than June 1, 2018, the Orange County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a notice, advising her to file her 2017 financial disclosure form before the initial July 2nd filing deadline along with a blank 2017 CE Form 1. The notice and the blank 2017 CE Form 1 were mailed to Appellant at: 1600 North Dean Road, Orlando, Florida 32825 (the address of Champions at Union Park Elementary School)

3. On July 2, 2018, the Orange County Supervisor of Elections determined Appellant to be delinquent in filing her 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.

4. On July 31, 2018, the Orange County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency, via certified mail. The Orange County Supervisor of Elections sent the notice to Appellant at the 1600 North Dean Road address. According to the US Postal Service's website, on August 3, 2018, the mail carrier attempted to deliver the Notice of Delinquency to the 1600 North Dean Road address but was not able to access the delivery location, so on August 15, 2018, at 9:02 am, the Notice of Delinquency was returned to the Orange County Supervisor of Election's Office.

5. On August 16, 2018, the Commission mailed Appellant a Courtesy Reminder Postcard intended to remind her to file her 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interest before the September 4th, grace period deadline. The Courtesy Reminder Postcard was mailed to Appellant at the 1600 North Dean Road address.

6. On September 6, 2018, the Commission sent a Notice of Fines Accruing to Appellant at the 1600 North Dean Road address.

7. On October 18, 2018, the Commission emailed Deborah McGill at Orange County Public Schools asking for her assistance. The Commission advised Ms. McGill that according to its' records there are still individuals on your list of Orange County School Public Officials that are required to file an annual financial disclosure form that have not yet done so, which included Appellant. The Commission advised Ms. McGill that the grace period deadline for Appellant to file a 2017 CE Form 1 ended on September 4th and pursuant to state law automatic fines have been accruing against her at a rate of $25 per day for each day after September 4th her 2017 CE Form 1 has remained unfiled. The Commission further advised Ms. McGill that as of the date of this email Appellant had accrued a total fine of $1,100 and additionally Section 112.3145(8)(c) Florida Statutes requires the Commission to initiate investigations of delinquent filers which in certain circumstances can result in him or her being removed from their public office or employment. Ms. McGill emailed the Commission a list of all the Orange County Public Officials and Employees whose termination dates fall within the December 31, 2017 deadline to not be required to file a 2017 CE Form, which did not include Appellant. Ms. McGill asked the Commission if maybe Appellant went under a different last name now than she did previously. Later that day the Commission emailed Ms. McGill back advising her that Appellant may now be listed under the last name Tanenbaum instead of Merritt as she was previously listed under.

8. On October 24, 2018, Ms. McGill emailed the Commission advising it that she had just emailed Appellant at a new email address she had found for her and was waiting to hear back from her.

9. On October 29, 2018, the Commission received Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests on behalf of the Orange County Supervisor of Elections. On her 2017 CE Form 1, Appellant listed her mailing address as: 1801 Biscayne Drive Orlando, Florida 32804

10. On November 6, 2018, the Commission sent Ms. McGill and email advising her that Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1 had been recorded and Appellant's last name had been corrected in the Commission's database.

11. On April 2, 2019, an automatically accrued fine was levied against Appellant.

12. The total amount of the automatic fine levied against Appellant was $1,375.
13. On April 5, 2019, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine, via certified mail. The notice advised Appellant that an automatic fine had been assessed against her pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes due to her failure to timely file her 2017 CE Form 1. The notice advised Appellant that although her 2017 CE Form 1 had originally been due on July 2, 2018, the statute provides for a penalty-free grace period which extends up to a final deadline of September 4, 2018. After September 4, 2018, those who are required to file a 2017 financial disclosure form but have still not done so began accruing automatic fines at a rate of $25 per day for each day after the grace period deadline their form remains unfiled. The notice informed Appellant that because her 2017 CE Form 1 had not been filed with the Orange County Supervisor of Elections until October 29, 2018, a full of 55 days after the grace period deadline, she had accrued a maximum total fine of $1,375. The notice advised Appellant that her fine must be paid to the Commission within 30 days of the date of this notice unless she appeals her fine before then. The Commission further advised Appellant that should she choose to appeal her fine, the Commission must receive her appeal on or before May 6, 2019 (30 days from the date of this notice). The Commission warned Appellant that failure on her part to file her appeal on or before the May 6th deadline will effectively constitute a waiver of her right to appeal and result in the entry of a default order against her. The Commission additionally advised Appellant that it has the authority waive her fine in whole or in part, if upon evaluating her appeal the Commission determines that her failure to timely file her financial disclosure form was due to "unusual circumstances". On April 24, 2019, at 12:33 pm, the notice was delivered to the 1801 Biscayne Drive address where it was received and signed for by an unidentified individual.

14. On April 24, 2019, Ms. McGill sent the Commission an email advising it that Appellant had received the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine stating that she had not filed her required 2017 financial disclosure form and had subsequently accrued a $1,375 automatic fine. Ms. McGill included the email Appellant had sent to the Orange County Supervisor of Elections on October 29, 2018, along with her 2017 CE Form 1 as attachments. The Commission emailed Ms. McGill back explaining that Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1 had originally been due on July 2, 2018 however Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes provides for a penalty-free grace period that extends the final due date to September 4, 2018. However, after September 4th Appellant began accruing automatic fines of $25 per day for each day after the grace period deadline her form remained unfiled. Because Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1 was not filed with the Orange County Supervisor of Elections until October 29, 2018, 55 days after the grace period deadline, she had thereby accrued a total automatic fine of $1,375. The Commission warned Ms. McGill that Appellant's fine must be paid to it within 30 days of the date it sent her the Notice of Delinquency unless she appeals her fine before then. The Commission additionally advised Ms. McGill it had included an appeal form as an attachment should Appellant decide to appeal her fine.

15. On April 25, 2019, the Commission received Appellant's Appeal of Automatic Fine for Form Year 2017. In part A of her appeal form, Appellant listed the 1801 Biscayne Drive address as her mailing address. In part B of her appeal form, Appellant checked "lack of notification" as the general reason for her appeal. In part C of her appeal form, which asks an Appellant to provide a detailed explanation of his or her appeal, including why the option they selected in part B of their form is applicable to their situation, Appellant claimed that she never received the original form or the subsequent notices because they had all been sent to the wrong address. Appellant explained that according to her previous conversations with the Commission her form as well as all of the subsequent notices warning her she needed to file it before the grace period deadline had been sent to her at the 1600 Dean Road address 32825 which is not her home mailing address. Appellant additionally explained that she had gotten married in 2017 and changed last name from Merritt to Tanenbaum which likely added to the confusion. Appellant claimed that once she was alerted that she was required to file a 2017 CE Form 1, she immediately did so.

16. On March 8, 2019, the Commission sent Appellant a letter advising her that it had received her appeal and would send all future correspondence regarding this matter to the address she had listed on her appeal form unless she notifies the Commission of a change of address. The letter advised Appellant that Commission staff will review her appeal along with any additional documentation she submitted with it. The Commission advised Appellant that Commission staff may contact her if they need additional information. Upon completing their review of her appeal, Commission staff will prepare a draft order which will be placed on the agenda of an upcoming Commission meeting. The letter advised Appellant that if she requested a hearing before the Commission when she filed her appeal, she will be provided with a copy of the draft order and be notified of the date and time of the upcoming Commission meeting at which her appeal will be heard. The letter advised Appellant that at this upcoming meeting, the Commission will rule on her appeal and subsequently enter a final order, a copy of which will be provided to her, usually within a week of the meeting.

Conclusions of Law

17. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

18. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

19. Section 112.3145(7)(f)3., Florida Statutes, states:
Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be made within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission.

20. The notice of the initial July 2nd filing deadline, as well as the Notice of Delinquency and the Courtesy Reminder Postcard were all sent to Appellant at the 1600 North Dean Road address (the address of Champions at Union Park Elementary School) instead of her current proper mailing address of 1801 Biscayne Drive Orlando, Florida 32804. The fact that none of the notices the Supervisor of Elections or the Commission sent Appellant prior to the grace period deadline were sent to her at her proper mailing address strongly supports her claim of "lack of notification" that she checked in part B of her appeal form as being the general reason for her appeal. Absent any kind of proof or admission by Appellant that she received notice prior to the grace period deadline she must be given the benefit of the doubt with regards her claim that she did not.. Appellant also encountered the unusual circumstance of the Orange County Supervisor of Election's database not being up to date enough to have noted her changed last name so that they could locate her when she needed to be given notice to file her 2017 financial disclosure form before the grace period deadline. Not receiving any form of notice in the form of an email, phone call or certified letter prior to the grace period deadline, that she was her required to file a 2017 CE Form 1 before the September 4th grace period deadline to is the kind of "unusual circumstance" that justifies waiving Appellant's automatic fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $1,375.

If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics. It will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format) and send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 6s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2017.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 2, 2018. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 4, 2018. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2017 CE Form 1 was filed October 29, 2018 with the Supervisor of Elections for Orange County, you are fined the amount of $1375.00 ($25.00 per day for 55 days late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.

2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(7)(f)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.

3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal must take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.

4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before May 6, 2019.

NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.

5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 4, 2018, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
   a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
   b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
   c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form IF for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

c. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2017: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2017; or

f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.

6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency’s governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

Sent: Wednesday, April 24, 2019
3:25 PM To: ’McGill,
Deborah Subject: RE: Stacey Tanenbaum Hi Deborah, The 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 2, 2018. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 4, 2018. After that date, Ms. Tanenbaum accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day her financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes. Inasmuch Ms. Tanenbaum’s 2017 CE Form 1 was filed October 29, 2018 with the Supervisor of Elections for Orange County, therefore, she is fined the amount of $1375.00 ($25.00 per day for 55 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of notice unless she appeals the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if her failure to file on time was due to ‘unusual circumstances’ surrounding the failure to file. The appeal must be received in our office on or before May 6, 2019. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of her right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against her. Attached is the appeal form if she decides to appeal. One was also provided in the envelope with the notice of assessed fine letter. If you have any questions or need further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.
