BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re RYAN PAPLOW,                      Financial Disclosure Appeal No.  FD 18-075 )                  Final Order No.
     Appellant.                             )

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on July 26, 2019, on the timely appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to the information provided to the Commission, Appellant served on the City of Lake Worth's Construction Board of Adjustments & Appeals, a position that requires the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2017. In 2018, the designated due date for submitting a 2017 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 2, 2018, with a grace period ending on September 4, 2018.

2. On September 26, 2018, the Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections received Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.

3. On April 17, 2019, an automatically accrued fine was levied against Appellant due to his failure to timely file his 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.
4. The total amount of the automatic fine levied against Appellant was $550.

5. On May 13, 2019 Appellant's Assistant called the Commission advising it that Appellant would send it his appeal as an email attachment.

Conclusions of Law

7. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

8. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

9. Section 112.3145(7)(f)3., Florida Statutes, states:

   Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be made within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission.

10. It is apparent that Appellant did not receive notice that he was required to file a 2017 CE Form 1 at any point prior to the September 4th grace period deadline. This is the kind of unusual circumstance which justifies waiving the automatic fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $550.
ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, July 26, 2019.

Re: PID# 268891

To Whom It May Concern:

I respectfully ask the Commission to waive the fine assessed as a result of the late filing of my 2017 CE Form 1 due to a series of unusual circumstances that occurred last year prior to, during and just after the filing period. To wit,

On December 19, 2017, my home was listed for sale (see Listing Agreement Exhibit 1). From that date, every surface in my home had to be free of everything every time it was shown to a potential buyer. If a notice arrived during that time, it could have been hurriedly swept into a drawer where more papers could have been piled on top of it for the next showing. I have no way of knowing at this point.

When my home finally went under contract on May 23, 2018 (see Contract Exhibit 2), I had a very short time to pack up, find a new place to live, and be out of my home by July 2, 2018 (see Contract Exhibit 2). If a notice arrived during that time, it could have been hurriedly put in a box to be moved to storage where it remains over ten months later.

On July 01, I moved into a rental unit (see Lease Exhibit 3). If I had the form with me at that time, rather than in a box that went to storage, it went with me to the rental unit. Shortly after moving into the furnished rental unit, it was discovered that the unit was infested with bed bugs. All possessions brought to the rental unit had to be enclosed in plastic bins and bags to prevent further infestation. The form could have been put into a bin or bag.

On August 06, I signed a lease at another rental complex (see Lease Exhibit 4) but could not immediately move in because I was waiting for the landlord to complete the bed bug eradication, August 28-30, 2018 (see Exhibit 5), at the first apartment so that I didn't transport bed bugs to another residence. After that date, I had to pack up everything to begin moving my possessions to the new apartment. I do not know if the form was in one of the bins or boxes that went to the new apartment and have remained unpacked for the last eight months.

During this period, I was also suffering excruciating pain from a debilitating back injury suffered while moving and exacerbated by moving a second time, which resulted in back surgery in October. And I was working full time to support my family.
During the chaos described above, I do not recall if I received other notices, if I signed for any notices or where a notice would have been delivered or redelivered after I moved from the address that was on file.

I would like to point out that the City of Lake Worth Board of Construction Adjustments and Appeals, of which I am a volunteer member, meets only on an "as needed" basis and has not met a single time during my term (see email dated May 8, 2019, Exhibit 6).

I would like to thank you in advance for your consideration of my appeal to waive the fine, and I look forward to a favorable resolution of this situation.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

FILING INSTRUCTIONS:
If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics. It will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15708, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5708; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format) and send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 5s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2017.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 2, 2018. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 4, 2018. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2017 CE Form 1 was filed September 26, 2018 with the Supervisor of Elections for Palm Beach County, you are fined the amount of $550.00 ($25.00 per day for 22 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.

2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(7)(f)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.

3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.

4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before May 17, 2019.

NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.

5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 4, 2018, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:

a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;

b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2017: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2017; or

f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.

6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of you salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency’s governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
