BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re EDIRISINGHE AMITIRIGALA, ) Financial Disclosure Appeal No. FD 18-070 Appellant. ) Final Order No.

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on September 13, 2019, on the timely appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, (formerly, Section 112.3145(7)(f)), which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.
The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant served on the Planning Board for the City of Tamarac, a position requiring the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2017. In 2018, the designated due date for submitting a 2017
CE Form 1 annual filing was July 2, 2018, with a grace period ending on September 4, 2018.

2. On July 31, 2018, the Commission granted Appellant an extension of the grace period deadline for him to file his 2017 CE Form 1, extending the deadline for him to file from September 4, 2018 to October 19, 2018.

3. On September 12, 2018, the Commission granted Appellant a second extension of the grace period deadline for him to file his 2017 CE Form, this time extending the deadline for him to file from October 19, 2018 to November 16, 2018.

4. On January 3, 2019, the Commission received Appellant's 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests on behalf of the Broward County Supervisor of Elections.

5. On April 17, 2019, an automatically accrued fine was levied against Appellant for his failure to timely file his 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.

6. The total amount of the automatic fine levied against Appellant was $1,200.

Conclusions of Law

8. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

9. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

10. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, states:

    Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

11. Although Appellant claims he only sent his 2017 CE Form 1 to the Broward County Supervisor of Election's Office via the Tamarac City Clerk's Office in May of 2018, prior to leaving the county on May 16, 2018, his 2017 CE Form 1 is actually signature dated November 22, 2018. This undercuts Appellant's claim of having originally filed his 2017 CE Form 1 with the City Clerk's Office in May of 2018. However, Appellant did not and could not have received the Notice of Delinquency that the Broward County Supervisor of Elections sent to his original 5881 Northwest 57th Avenue address on July 27, 2018, because at the time he was traveling outside of the country and would not return until October 16, 2018. Although the Commission was in contact with the Tamarac City Clerk's Office during the period of time between July 31st, when it granted the City Clerk's first request for an extension, and November 16th, the deadline of the final extended grace period created by the second extension, there is no evidence or any admission by the City Clerk's Office that they ever contacted Appellant while he was overseas to notify him that the Miami Dade County Supervisor of Elections had still not received a 2017 CE Form 1 from him and that he only had until November 16, 2018, to file a 2017 CE Form 1 before automatic fines would begin to accrue. Furthermore, without any evidence or an admission by Appellant that he received notice of his filing obligation at any point prior to November 16, 2018, he must be given the benefit of the doubt that he did not receive notice prior to the November 16th final extended grace period deadline. To Wit, in part B of his appeal form, Appellant cites "lack of notification" as being one of the three general reasons for his appeal. Lack of notice is the kind of unusual circumstance that justifies waiving the automatic fine that Appellant accrued for not timely filing his 2017 CE Form 1.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $1,200.
ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, September 13, 2019.

Dear Sirs,
I am currently residing in Sri Lanka and received your letter addressed to my previous address 5881 NW 57th Avenue Apt 1 , Tamarac, FL 33319, then forwarded to my P.O. Box 137, 6805 W. Commercial Blvd, Tamarac, FL 33319. It was then sent to my address in Sri Lanka.

I was rather shocked to receive the notice & Assessment & Automatic fine since I made arrangements before May 16th 2018 to submit my completed statement of "Financial Interest for year 2017" to the Supervisor of Elections through City Clerk's Office of the City of Tamarac (Ref. Lillian Pabon - Phone 954-597-3503) before my departure abroad on May 16th 2018.

The details of my submission of "Financial Interest for year 2017" Form 1 is given below:

Few days before my departure abroad on May 16th 2018, I entrusted a close friend Mrs. Joy Rogers of 5600 NW 59th Street, Apt 4, Tamarac FL 33319 (Ph: 954-261-9859) to hand deliver my completed Form 1 for year 2017 to City Clerk's Office of the City of Tamarac to be sent to the Supervisor of Elections. When Mrs. Rogers arrived at City Clerk's Office she was requested to send the "Form 1 - year 2017" by mail to City Clerk's Office.

Mrs. Rogers sent my "Form 1 - year 2017" to City Clerk's Office by registered mail return receipt, and received the "return receipt card signed". When I returned to Florida on the 17th of November 2018, Mrs. Rogers gave me the "return receipt card".

I then visited City of Tamarac, City Clerk's Office and they confirmed the receiving of my "Form 1 - year 2017" and sent it to Supervisor of Elections -
Then, I visited the Office of the Supervisor of Elections in the City of Lauderdale and they confirmed receiving my 'Form 1 for 2017'. At this point I was quite confident that my Form 1 for 2017 has been received by the Supervisor of Elections of Broward County.

Then, I visited City of Tamarac to tender my letter of resignation to the planning Board of City of Tamarac for family health reasons/travelling abroad. I completed my Form 1 and Form 1F for year 2018 and sent both forms to the Supervisor of Elections through City Clerk's Office of City of Tamarac.

Please note that I only sent my 'Form 1 for 2017' to the Supervisor of elections only once. In May 2018 through the City of Tamarac City Clerk's Office.

I never sent my 'Form 1 for 2017' to Supervisor of Elections on January 3rd of 2019.

I am very grateful if you could check my signature/date of my 'Form 1 for 2017'. This will verify the date I instructed Mrs Rogers to send the form to Supervisor of Elections via City of Tamarac City Clerk's Office.

You may also contact Ms. Lilian Pabon (954-597-3503) of City Clerk's Office of the City of Tamarac to verify the date that they sent my 'Form 1 for 2017' to the Supervisor of Elections.

In hindsight, I should have personally handed over the 'Form 1 for 2017' to the Supervisor of Elections personally, and obtain a receipt. I was more confident in sending the form through City of Tamarac City Clerk's Office at the time.

I am very much concerned about the appearance of negligence & disrespect to the Florida Commission on Ethics. This was not the case as I tried my best to submit the 'Form 1 for 2017' before the deadline.

I am respectfully requesting the members of the Commission of Ethics to waive the automatic fine of $1200.00 as I never intended to ignore or disrespect your office by appearing to submit the form for year 2017 late.

I truly feel ashamed to receive a fine from the Commission on Ethics at my age of 75 years (in June 2019) after years of community service, a blemish in my record.

Thank you with sincere regards,

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filing of a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2017.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2017 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 2, 2018. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 4, 2018. On July 31, 2018, the Commission's chair approved a 45-day extension giving you until October 19, 2018. On September 7, 2018, the Commission extended your filing date until November 16, 2018, Extension Request 18-04. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2017 CE Form 1 was filed January 3, 2019 with the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County, you are fined the amount of $1200.00 ($25.00 per day for 121 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.

2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(7)(f)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.

3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.

4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before May 17, 2019. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.

5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 4, 2018, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
   a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
   b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;

d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2017: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2017; or

f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.

6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing. The Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency’s governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

Re: PID # 81413

Dear Sirs,

My name is Edirisinghe Amitirigala former member of City of Tamarac, Planning Board.

I am responding to your letter of ‘Assessment of Automatic fine’ for late submission of ‘Financial Interest for year 2017’ Form 1.

I have already sent a letter and the completed form ‘Appeal for Automatic fine for form year 2017’ by DHL to your address. You should receive it in a few days.

I thought it would be prudent for me to scan and attach the information I sent by courier, in case of any delay in the courier service.

Please see below my appeal for automatic fine. I hope it is not very inconvenient to read.

Since I am now reading in Sri Lanka, e-mail would be the most quick way of communication.

I thank for your consideration on this matter.

Thank you and kind regards,

Edirisinghe Amitirigala
