RE: Complaint No. 25-064
Rod Lincoln

Dear Millie,

My original understanding of the filing requirement was that we had to send in a full financial statement and it would be open to the public. After having a discussion with other board members I learned that I did not have to file a complete financial statement and I decided not to turn in my resignation and I went ahead and filed the required reports but I missed the year 2021.

I talked to someone at the state Commission of Ethics last month and they directed me to a site where I could download the form for 2021. I manually completed the form and tried to get online and file but couldn't seem to get to the correct online location to file the completed 2021 form. So, I am sending in the completed 2021 form with this letter.

I apologize for all the general and administrative time this is taking. I certainly didn't want to violate any ethics laws and will get these types of situations resolved as soon as possible in the future.

Please let me know if there is anything else you will need from me to get this situation resolved.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Rod Lincoln
